

Welcome to Second Grade!

Homework

Homework is sent home on Mondays. There will not be a homework packet if there are less than four days in the school week. The first homework packet will be sent home next Monday.

- Four pages (One each night Tuesday through Thursday)
- Due by Friday (may be turned in early)

Any unfinished homework for each term is due at your child's SEP conference for that term

Reading Calendars

Reading Calendars will be sent home the first day of every month, starting in September, and are due the last day of every month

- 20 minutes, 5 days a week
- 5 days can be any days of the week
- End of month, total the number of minutes read and sign

Math

- Pre-test and post-test for each unit
- All students in all classes will be learning the same standards (just in different ways and at different rates, based on their needs)
- All take the same test at the end of the unit
- Review groups split between the teachers at the end of the unit

Guided Reading

Students will be in their own classroom for guided reading

- Instruction will be tailored to their needs
- Students are in a group of other students who are reading at their exact same level.

The groups are fluid, we discuss them weekly and move students between groups based on their progress and needs.

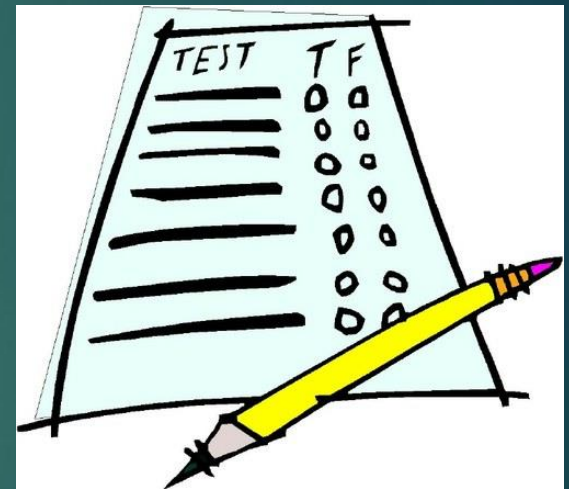

Guided Reading Parent Helpers

If you are interested in working with small groups of students during our guided reading time, please feel free to sign up for what days you would like to help on the google doc link that will be sent to you.

Sign Ups will also be available in your child's classroom tonight

Math/ Language Arts Assessments

- Math and Language Arts assessments will be kept on file and given to you at our SEP conferences
- Language Arts tests given at the end of most weeks
- Language Arts tests based on literacy concept worked on in class for that week

Money Management

- In second grade, students will be able to earn money for good behavior, it may also be taken away for poor behavior.
- Twice a year we will have a Second Grade Garage Sale where students will also be able to use their money.

Class Party Sign Up

- We would also love to have your help with class parties!
- Sign up on the google doc that will be sent to you
